Let's read about Shylock.

Merchant of Venice Summary

- Shylock lends money to a man he knows hates him because Shylock is a Jew.
- As part of the penalty for not paying back, Shylock writes in he gets a “pound of flesh” from the man.
- In the end, Shylock is forced to forget the debt because he was too mean.
- Shylock also loses his daughter in marriage to a Christian and half his wealth, yet Shylock really didn't do anything wrong.

Merchant of Venice Summary

- Shylock is seen by many as the villain but all he did was loan money and expect payment.
- Everyone expected him to act a certain way.
- The stereotype of Jews was greedy, strict with money, and hard hearted.
- This stereotype is used in court to make Shylock let go of the debt.
- Was this fair? (Write down your answer and share with neighbor)

Doug Swieteck

- Doug made a list of 410 things to make a teacher hate you.
- How many of them has he tried?
- Doug Swieteck's Brother is part of the "Penitentiary Crowd." What does Penitentiary mean?
- Do you think this is a stereotype? Explain. (Write answer and share with neighbor.)
- Is Doug Swieteck like his brother?
- Are Doug and his brother like Shylock?
