

02/25/20

SO, WHOSE SIDE ARE YOU ON?

offthemark.com

MarkParisi@aol.com 9-22
©2014 Mark Parisi Dist. by Universal Uclick

Karma has no menu. You get served what you deserve.

I OPPOSE TACO TUESDAY ONLY BECUASE IT SENDS THE MESSAGE THAT OTHER DAYS AREN'T ALSO FOR TACOS.

SEVEN DAYS WITHOUT A TACO MAKES ONE WEAK

I HAD CHEESE, BUT NO CRACKERS

I WAS CRACKA-LACKIN'

A CHEESE FACTORY EXPLODED IN FRANCE

DA BRIE IS EVERYWHERE

#440

HOW DO TACOS SAY GRACE?

LETTUCE PRAY
OMPAMAMAS

Today

1. Slang of the 1960s.

Define the Slang of the 1960s

A. With a partner, translate the following terms into modern words by looking up the Slang of the 1960s file on misterlarson.com under Services. (USE GOOGLE DOCS)

- | | | |
|-----------------|------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Rap | 8. Split | 15. Psychedelic |
| 2. Out of Sight | 9. Wig out | 16. Rinky-Dink |
| 3. Gas | 10. Ankle biters | 17. Bomb |
| 4. Fink | 11. Blitzed | 18. Crash |
| 5. Heavy | 12. Copasetic | 19. Drop a dime |
| 6. My Man | 13. Drag | 20. Lame |
| 7. Trash | 14. Skirt | 21. Jive |

B. With a partner, write a story of at least 150 words describing a fun weekend using at least 10 of the terms from above or other ones in the Slang of the 1960s. (USE GOOGLE DOCS)