

Wayno®
& 3
Piraro.
1-25-19

In the end, it's the things you didn't smash that you regret most.

04/25/19

Journal Write 16.2

What are your weekend plans?
AND/OR Describe what the perfect weekend plans would be? Go where? Do what?

"Tell Thanos I'm coming"

Today

1. Journal Write 16.2 (W7.3b)
2. Figurative Language Discussion and assignment (SL 7.1b & RL7.4)

Figurative Language

I can identify examples of
figurative language
in a text. (RI.7.4)

Simile

- Comparison between two unlike things, usually with the words like or as.
- Pair Share Ideas for an example
- Write it down on your notes

Metaphor

- Direct comparison between two unlike things without using like or as. (Am, are, is, was, were, be, been, being)
- Pair Share Ideas for an example
- Write it down on your notes

Personification

- Gives the qualities of a person to an animal, an object, or an idea.
- Pair Share Ideas for an example
- Write it down on your notes

Onomatopoeia

- A word that sounds like its meaning.
- Pair Share Ideas for an example
- Write it down on your notes

Assignment

- 1. Write on the back of your notes a story that uses at least one NEW example of each of the following:
  - A. Simile
  - B. Metaphor
  - C. Personification
  - D. Onomatopoeia
- 2. Minimum of 45 words in length.
- 3. Underline your examples then share with a student and have them check your work and sign it.

Example

There was a man as tall as a house who could hear the singing of the clouds.

This helped him know when the crash of thunder or boom of lightning would come. He was a fountain of information about the weather.

I can identify examples of
figurative language
in a text. (RI.7.4)

Assignment

- 1. Write on the back of your notes a story that uses at least one NEW example of each of the following:
  - A. Simile
  - B. Metaphor
  - C. Personification
  - D. Onomatopoeia
- 2. Minimum of 45 words in length.
- 3. Underline your examples then share with a student and have them check your work and sign it.